Vision Statement

Growing in faith by...worshipping God, loving all, joyfully serving others

Covenant – We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the word and the will of God. We purpose to walk together in the ways of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the church to witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world, while worshipping God, and striving for the truth, justice and peace. As did those who came before, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming of the kingdom of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.

Number 318 MAY 2020

REVEALED FOR OUR SAKE

Just because things may be hard for us to grasp with our imagination doesn't mean they're not in place for our benefit. Hey, any parent, grandparent, or teacher can tell you that. Maybe it's the bedtime routine. Maybe it's the biannual dental appointments or the vacation time which does not roll over. We have many things around us that are set in place for the benefit of our health, be it mental, emotional, or physical. In 1 Peter 1:20, we are reminded that Christ was chosen before the creation of the world, but that He was revealed in these last times for our sake. Even though Christ, in His divinity, precedes all we can possibly imagine, it does not necessarily follow that His incarnation, passion, resurrection, and ascension have not all been for our great benefit. Indeed, they have. So, as we continue to live through these disconcerting times amid COVID-19, may we hold fast to Jesus. For we haven't been renewed through something fleeting, but from the eternal, living and enduring Word of God. Jesus is for you.

Your brother in Christ,
Pastor Joel

FCCM ONLINE WORSHIP

Each Sunday, during the COVID-19 crisis, we will have a digital Online Worship service accessible through the church website (www.fccmarshfield.org), church Facebook page, and through the weekly The Pilgrim email. Online Worship will feature links to announcements, prayers, Scripture readings, Sermons, and Worship Music. This is a great opportunity to get involved for all ages of the church! If you would like to join in participating, please reach out to Pastor Joel or a member of the Diaconate, and we would be happy to discuss ways you can get involved in Online Worship at FCCM. The Spirit unites God's people wherever they may be. May God bless you and your family in Christ Jesus.

"GOD LOVES, GOD PROVIDES"

- FCCM Daily Devotionals

In a time when we may easily be tempted to think we're alone, here at FCC Marshfield we want to remind one another that God is always with us, and that we are united by the Holy Spirit, no matter what physical distance there may be between us, no matter what illness may come our way. As an intentional effort to remind us of God's loving presence with His people, we have taken on the spiritual practice of offering daily devotionals from members and friends of our church. Each devotional will include a Scripture, brief 1-2 paragraph devotional, and a prayer. Our theme for these devotionals is "God's love and provision for His people." For recommended Scriptures or to submit a devotional, please contact Pastor Joel at pastorfccm@gmail.com. Thank you!

HEAVENLY BOOKWORMS' MARCH AND MAY 2020 SELECTION

I Will Not Fear; by Melba Pattillo Beals

In 1957, Melba Beals was one of 9 African American students chosen to integrate Central High School in Little Rock. While her white schoolmates were planning their senior prom, Melba was being threatened with lynching-and outrunning white supremacists. Only her faith in God sustained her and enabled her become a civil rights warrior, a television news reporter, a magazine writer, a professor, a wife, and a mother.

In I Will Not Fear, Beals takes readers on an incredible journey through terror, oppression, and persecution, highlighting the kind of faith needed to survive in a world full of heartbreak and prejudice. You will see how the deep faith one develops during our most difficult moments can change us, our families, our communities, and even the world. Encouraging and inspiring, Beals' story offers readers hope that faith is the solution to hopelessness in our current culture.

I AM GOING TO THINK POSITIVE and plan the discussion for May's book to be Friday 5/29(7p) at the Chrisman's, 13 Mountain Ash, Kingston (Rt.3 South to exit 10; turn right to head north; then (after storage units) turn left onto Silver Birch; then right on Mountain Ash – 5th house on right). SHOULD WE STILL BE IN SELF-QUARANTINE, we will hold our discussion on ZOOM. Questions: 781-361-1290. Book is under $5 (see Georgia) or order from Christianbook.com.

Are You a Couch-Potato who likes to Read?

If that is the case...why not read Bookworm selections on your couch. If you are not interested in discussing them, don't! You could be a Heavenly Couch-Potato Worm reading the books, but skipping the discussions. Books are inspiring, interesting and often informative. You will be surprised on what you will gain. They will take you all over the world, introduce you to amazing people and broaden your horizons. Past books are in our church library on counter. Borrow one!

FROM YOUR DEACONS

Update on Pastor Joel's Vicinage, Ordination and Installation: Due to the uncertainty surrounding the Corona Virus pandemic the Deacons have proposed, and the Council has approved new dates for the Vicinage, Ordination and Installation. The new dates are: Saturday September 19th 2020 at 10:30 am for the Vicinage and Sunday October 18th at 3:00 pm for the Ordination and Installation. We have sent a "heads up" e-mail to all of the invited churches and will follow up with a Letter Missive in July if these dates still seem doable. Again, we would like to thank the Christian Fellowship Committee for their generous offer to help with the luncheon and dinner associated with those celebrations. We thank Pastor Joel for his leadership during difficult time. Due to his efforts the congregation did not have to miss even one of our Holy Week Services! Palm Sunday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday were all offered online. The Deacons had the honor of participating in the Maundy Thursday service. We hope that you enjoyed those services and will continue to attend each Sunday service as it is offered online. Pastor Joel was supposed to be on vacation April 26 and June 28th but has postponed those as he leads us through this crisis.

Thanks to Deacon Rick Taylor the Deacons continue to meet online via Zoom until we can meet again in person. We are trying to figure out how and when that can happen and what changes will have to be made. This is a work in progress, and we appreciate your patience and flexibility. We are working on updates to the website and preparing for the Annual Meeting in whatever form it takes.

We urge everyone to participate in the online Worship by following the links provided on the website, Facebook page and The Pilgrim e-newsletter. We can track the number of views each service gets and it gives us great encouragement to get as many views as possible. Please continue to support your church by sending your weekly offerings in the mail. "Keep a Christian from entering the church sanctuary and you have not in the least bit hindered his worship. We carry our sanctuary with us. We never leave it" A.W. Tozer.

Your Deacons, Michael Rydberg, Judy Johnson, Rick Taylor, Lisa Brown, Kathy Doherty, Jayne Bowman, Frank Wilkins and Alyssa Titus

COVID-19 UPDATE

- FCCM Response & Preparedness

In response to COVID-19, Governor Baker declared a State of Emergency for Massachusetts and issued an advisory stating that residents stay at home and that all non-essential business be closed by noon daily. The advisory includes a further restriction to ban in-person gatherings of 10 people or more, including faith-based events (previously the ban had been for gatherings of 25 or more). On April 21, Governor Baker extended the school closure through the rest of the academic year, and childcare facilities are closed through June 29. Baker has also recently extended the stay-at-home advisory and non-essential business closure to May 18th. Churches around the country have continued to make decisions to adapt their Worship liturgy and outreach, taking into account the health and safety of members and friends, in order to contain the virus. Following much prayerful consideration, we have suspended all in-person church-related events and services for the immediate future. Please know that this is a fluid situation, and we are assessing the latest information as it is made available. Our friends in the medical community support this decision. We pray that everyone may be safe. Visit the CDC online for the latest updates on COVID-19. Click here or contact the Town for the March 29th statement from the Town Board of Health. We are pleased to be holding Online Worship services on Sundays and our Daily Devotional, both of which we encourage participation in from members and friends. Thank you.

SENDING IN OFFERINGS

As we continue to live into this unprecedented time of social distancing, we encourage all members and friends of FCCM to submit offerings to support our ongoing ministries. Offerings may be mailed to the church at First Congregational Church of Marshfield, P.O. Box 826, Marshfield, MA 02050. You may also opt to submit your offering through your bank or financial institution. God's grace is abundant, and He will sustain us through this COVID-19 crisis. Please contact the Church Office or a Trustee with any questions. Thank you for your generous support!

A NOTE FROM YOUR CARING MINISTRY TEAM

The role of the Caring Ministry Team is to assist the minister in meeting the needs of the congregation. The Team consists of 8 members: Lisa Brown, Pam Drouin, Mary Ellingson, Jennifer Fields, Judy Johnson, Donna McCue, Michael Rydberg and Gisele Coville. Each parishioner has been assigned to a Caring Ministry Team member. If you don't know who your Caring Minister is, please contact Michael Rydberg (508-246-3037), Gisele Coville or Jennifer Fields. Our primary mission is to pray for the needs of our assigned parishioners. Please also let us know if a spiritual or practical need should arise.

ONLINE LECTIO DIVINA - New Date! Wed., May 27

While we regret having to postpone our lectio divina session planned for March 14, we are pleased to be able to offer a new online lectio divina on Wed., May 27 at 7pm. Lectio divina is a contemplative way of reading the Bible. A centuries-old ecumenical spiritual practice, it dates back to the early church and was a monastic practice in the 6th Century. Lectio divina is a way of praying Scripture that leads us deeper into God's Word. Our online lectio divina will be in a multimedia format and offered via Zoom video call. Please email pastorfccm@gmail.com to sign up.

JUNE MUTUAL AND COUNCIL MEETINGS — Tue., June 9

Boards and Committees will be holding their April mutual meetings online via video conferencing on Tue., June 9 at 6:30pm. The Diaconate will be meeting via Skype and the Trustees will be meeting via Zoom. Council will meet via Zoom at pm. Please contact Boards/Committees, Pastor Joel, or Moderator Steve Hight with any questions. Thank you!

CALLING ALL BUSINESSES and INDIVIDUALS

The Trustees are offering sponsoring space in The Bell newsletter. This initiative will help bring in additional revenue as well as defray the costs associated with The Bell. In this Bell, we are offering free ads to individuals and businesses affiliated with our church while we test the layout. This could be either a sponsorship or even a personal message. If interested, please contact the church office or speak to/email a Trustee.

NEED TO TALK? HAVING TROUBLE DURING THE COVID-19 CRISIS?

We are living through an especially stressful and challenging time amid the COVID-19 crisis. While some may be juggling the obligations of career and home schooling children, others may be experiencing a sudden shift in employment, loss of career, or loneliness and isolation. Of course, there is also the fact that some may contract the virus, making it difficult for loved ones to see them. If you feel like you need to speak with someone about these concerns, please know that you can always contact the Pastor. In the event of an emergency, you should call 911. Click here or contact the Town for resources available through the Town Board of Health.

CELEBRATING CONGREGATIONAL HERITAGE

2020 marks the 400th anniversary of the Pilgrim landing at Plymouth. As a Pilgrim church ourselves, here at FCCM we will be celebrating this momentous occasion in many ways throughout the year. Two Sundays each month we will be featuring a highlighted history of a Congregationalist who has contributed to blessing God's world. These highlights will also appear in our emails, The Pilgrim. Many thanks to our friends on the NACCC Plymouth 400 team for putting these informative histories together.

MISSION PROJECTS FOR MAY

Loving and caring about others is a year-round mission. Please continue to share in our mission to give support to everyone here and around the world.

Helping our on-going Marshfield Missions

Food Pantry - Please send a donation to the Food Pantry or to a group that is helping to feed the tremendous number of food-insecure families in the United States at this time.

Sowing Seeds - Please donate new socks, good spring clothing, new sleepwear

Good Neighbor Fund - Continue to buy your Grocery and Gift Cards through the Good Neighbor Fund. Our neighbors need help year-round.

Helping the Homeless - Please support this on-going project with the Youth Fellowship and donate travel sized toiletries or new clean socks.

Helping our Family and Friends around the World

Please continue to pray for our families and friends around the world.

We have received thanks from Church World Services for our support and that they have been able to supply blankets and items to many needy people in need. The Missions Committee will be sending a donation to honor the mothers again this year.

Opportunities

The Missions Committee has received a donation to be used for Mission trips through a vetted organization.

This is open to anyone in the church interested. Please talk to members of the committee for more information.

CELEBRATING 400 YEARS OF AMERICAN CONGREGATIONALISM
Learn more about our Congregational History at nacc.org

Did you know Richard Mather...

The Mathers were the First Family of the Massachusetts Bay Colony during the first century of its existence. Richard Mather was the family patriarch who came to the Colony in 1635. He was the father of Increase Mather, and the grandfather of Cotton Mather.

Richard trained for the ministry at Oxford and was ordained in 1618. In 1634 he was removed from his parish and forbidden to preach due to his congregational convictions. He decided to move his family to the Bay Colony and quickly became one of its leading ministers. Mather was one of the ministers who, in 1640, produced The Bay Psalm Book, the first book published in the Colonies. The Psalms were translated to be sung to the meter of familiar English tunes for use by the churches in worship.

Richard Mather's greatest contribution to American Congregationalism came when he was chosen by the Cambridge Synod to write the first draft of the Platform of Congregational Polity and Discipline. The Synod abridged and modified Mather's draft, but the final product which the Synod adopted in 1648 was largely his. The Cambridge Platform is the clearest statement of American Congregational polity that has ever been written. It affirms the independence of each congregation, but equally affirms that a strong cooperative bond exists between them that creates an affectionate family of sister churches. Local churches are related to each other to promote their common good. They recognize each other's members, and consult on matters of mutual concern.

Historical story by: Rev. Norm Erendson

Did you know Elizabeth Tilley...

Elizabeth Tilley was orphaned when both of her parents died during the first winter in the New World. Elizabeth then lived in the Carver household until it was broken up by death. Then she lived with the Howlands.

She was different than many of the women in that she could write her own name. She married John Howland who wrote many letters and records of the colony.

Elizabeth's mother was likely Dutch, a Bridget Van De Veldt. John Howland, who she later married, was one of the signers of the Mayflower Compact and was one of the "ten principal men" chosen to select a site for the colony. The Howlands had ten children. Elizabeth lived more than ninety years, staying her last days with her daughter Lydia Howland Brown in Swanzy in 1687. Among the things mentioned in her will are many religious books, skeins of silk and buttons.

...was a Congregationalist?

Historical story by: Rev. Will Lange

Did you know Priscilla Mullins Alden ...

Priscilla Mullins became an orphan the first winter in "New" England, but she survived. Priscilla became celebrated in romance and poetry. She was said to be well-born. Her father at his death was called "a man pious and well-deserving endowed with considerable outward estate."

Priscilla was about twenty years old when she came to Plymouth. She was called handsome, witty, deft and skilful as spinner and cook. John Alden, a cooper (barrel maker), joined the Pilgrims at Southampton. He promised to stay a year in the colony. John brought a Bible, printed in 1620.

The poet Longfellow, a descendant of Priscilla (Mullin) Alden, wrote down the story of Miles Standish's asking John Alden to be his proxy in asking for Priscilla's hand. Priscilla chose Alden instead: "Why don't you speak for yourself, John?" Their daughter Elizabeth, son Jonathan and nine other children were born to Priscilla and John.
